Walk lasted between 12:00 and 13:45. Tournament Park closed.

We once again had a new walker, Mickey Areeda, Viveca's sister-in-law visiting from Michigan. And for the record, like last week's new walker, Mickey did not have any bolt cutters on her. So we had to peer through the fence around Tournament Park. This is getting old. Peering through the fence, that is. We did have a good walk in spite of that. We recorded 18 species, right on the prediction. Well, 18.4 was the prediction, but we claim the 0.4 because of the dead crow or raven we saw out on the North athletic field. So, everything is as it should be. Except for dead birds laying around. Welcome, Micky! Hope you can join us again before retreating back to Michigan.
